

You Are Johan!

You are Johan, a 43-year-old white, heterosexual man without any disabilities. You are married to Karin, and you have two biological children named Elsa and Lucas. Your family has recently moved into a house in a big city. You are not religious, but you always celebrate Christmas, and you enjoy eating meat. You have just started a new job as a manager at one of the city's larger companies.

Today, you will be interviewed for the company newsletter!
